SnowBoarder, model, surfer

Mario "Massakka" Kötterl, born in Munich on 8th of July 1993, changed from the dark side to snowboarding in 2005. He is living in Innsbruck and selling software in his remote job. He is stoked to shred kickers and jibbing around in the park. But when he spots a snow covered pillow, there is no other way than sending it! He enjoys building backcountry jumps and going on trips with SnowFront.

In summertime he travels the world, on his endless search for the perfect surf. Mountain biking in the nature of the Alps is his balance when the swell drops.
